The object of the Rural Sociological Society is to promote the development of rural sociology through research, teaching, and extension work.

Any person professionally employed in the field of rural sociology, or who is interested in the objectives of this Society, may become a member upon application, payment of dues, and review of classification by the Membership Committee. The annual membership fees are $65 for active members who earn up to $50,000 a year, and $85 for active members who earn more than $50,000 a year; $50 for active members without publications; $55 for associate (nonvoting) members; $35 for emeritus members; and $25 for student (nonvoting) members. Citizens of countries other than the United States and Canada, living outside the United States and Canada, are eligible for membership as international associates (nonvoting) with dues of $40 payable in U.S. currency. Members may pay dues in advance for 3 years. Every member, except those who are active without publications, receives RURAL SOCIOLOGY and the quarterly news journal, THE RURAL SOCIOLOGIST (TRS), at no additional expense.
